Your Shire Council needs strong leaders

Have you thought about being a candidate in the Shire Council Elections?
As a Shire Councillor, you:

- are the ears, eyes and voice for the people of your ward
- need to make good decisions for all the people in the Shire
- tell the Shire Council what is important for your community
- listen to all the people in the ward no matter where they live
- tell the people in your ward about decisions
- check that the Shire Council is doing a good job
- think about how to make services in your Shire better
- learn about Shire business and laws
- be a good role model for the people inside and outside your Shire.

Nominations to become a candidate in the elections close at 12 noon sharp 2 October 2008.

Vote for your Councillors

In October you have a chance to decide who will represent you and your Ward on the Shire Council.

Have your say!

Vote for someone who will be your voice on the Shire Council and make decisions for everyone in the Shire.

The job of Shire Councillors is to listen, speak up and try to make good decisions for everyone. Who will you choose?
